

MPSC Meghalaya LDA: English Grammar - Error Detection & Correction

(300 Solved High-Probability MCQs)

Verbal Ability Series

Part I: Quick Strategy for Error Detection & Improvement

- Subject-Verb Agreement: Singular subjects take singular verbs; plural subjects take plural verbs. Watch for phrases between subject and verb.
- Tense Consistency: Do not switch tenses unnecessarily. If an action started in the past, it usually continues in the past.
- Fixed Prepositions: Many verbs/adjectives take specific prepositions (e.g., 'Abolition of', 'Opinion on', 'Addicted to').
- Conditional Sentences: In 'If' clauses, use 'rains' (present) instead of 'will rain' (future) for probable conditions.
- Pronoun Usage: 'Neither', 'Each', and 'One of' always take singular verbs and singular pronouns.

Part III: High-Probability Concept Recap

- Time Expressions: 'Yesterday', 'Last year' require Simple Past. 'Since' is for a point in time; 'For' is for a duration.
- Hypothetical: 'If I were', 'As if he were' are used for unreal/imaginary situations.
- Subject-Verb: 'Neither/Nor' or 'Either/Or' uses the verb corresponding to the nearest subject. 'As well as' uses the verb corresponding to the first subject.
- Prepositions: 'Senior/Junior' take 'to'. 'Prefer' takes 'to'. 'Accused' takes 'of'.
- Articles: Do not use 'the' before languages or abstract nouns in general. Use 'a' before 'unique' (vowel sound 'y').
